Carine Topal

Over the past 30 years, Carine has been teaching poetry and writing workshops to children and adults. Carine will be reading from her award-winning collection of poems from "Tattooed", written in the voices of the perpetrators, victims, and survivors of the Holocaust. There will be an opportunity to meet with her and/or purchase her materials after the presentation. Arrive early for the best seats!

Applications for 2017-2018 season of our "Local Voices" Series will be available starting Wednesday, February 1, 2017.
